

APPLICATION FORM FOR THE
COURT OF APPEALS
CJA LIST

INTRODUCTION

The District of Columbia Court of Appeals seeks highly qualified counsel to provide representation to indigent criminal appellants and juvenile respondents pursuant to D.C. Code § 11-2601 et seq., and the Plan for Furnishing Representation to Indigents Under the District of Columbia Criminal Justice Act, Title II § B(2). Applicants for inclusion on the Court's list of attorneys eligible for CJA appointments should be committed to providing timely and effective representation and must establish that they have sufficient qualifications to meet the requirements imposed by this Court through its rules and case law. Please review the memorandum titled "Obligations of Counsel" for a summary of the Court's expectations for attorneys who are approved for CJA appointments. This can be found at <http://www.dccourts.gov/internet/legal/cja.jsf> under the "For the CJA Practitioner" section. Applicants also should be committed to improving and maintaining their advocacy and brief writing skills. Please see Miscellaneous Order No. M-217-03 establishing continuing legal education requirements for CJA attorneys and the 2006 Notice to CJA Counsel Concerning the Annual CLE Requirement. Both of these are also located at the above web address. (Attorneys added to the list in 2012 will only be required to complete four hours to meet the CLE obligation for 2012.)

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- A. Membership in good standing in the D.C. Bar.
- B. Office within the metropolitan D.C. area and an email address, since all vouchers and payments are issued electronically.
- C. Commitment to remain on the CJA appointments list for a minimum of two years.
- D. Commitment to complete the yearly CLE requirement and update the application yearly with new information. See Miscellaneous Order No. M-217-03.
- E. Completion of the attached questionnaire. If a question does not apply, please so state. You must submit four (4) copies of your application and writing sample. Non-compliant applications will not be considered.
- F. Execution of release and waiver of confidentiality to permit the Office of Bar Counsel to release information on disciplinary records to the D.C. Court of Appeals.

QUESTIONNAIRE
